

Form A6: application for cremation of body parts following a hospital arranged post mortem examination or whole body/body parts donated for anatomical examination

Cremation number:

Crematorium/cremation authority address:

Cremation authority registration number:

This is a statutory form, prescribed by the Cremation (Scotland) Regulations 2019. The information and questions contained in this form must not be changed.

This form is used to apply for a cremation of:

- a whole body following an anatomical examination (where the body was donated on or after the commencement of the Anatomy Act 1984 as amended by the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006 (14 February 1988));
- body parts which have been retained after an anatomical examination (where the body was donated on or after the commencement of the Anatomy Act 1984 as amended by the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006 (14 February 1988)); or
- body parts which have been retained after a hospital arranged post mortem examination.

Anatomical examination

When a person bequeaths their body for anatomical examination and their remains are to be cremated after the examination, the university's licensed teacher of anatomy will complete Form M¹ when releasing a whole body for disposal. A person authorised by the university is required to complete Form A6 to apply for the cremation.

Body Parts (anatomical examination or post mortem examination)

Some body parts may be retained after the body itself has been released for cremation. The licensed teacher of anatomy, doctor or pathologist will complete Form N² releasing the body parts for disposal and a person authorised by the university or hospital must complete Form A6 to apply for the cremation.

Form M or Form N must be submitted along with every Form A6 to the cremation authority

Hospital arranged post mortem examination

When the form authorising a hospital post mortem examination is completed by the next of kin they will complete the section for disposal of any retained organs/body parts. Form A6 should be used by the hospital to arrange for cremation of the organs/body parts.

1 Certificate of authorisation for the disposal of a body following anatomical examination; section 27A of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act 1965.

2 Certificate of authorisation for the disposal of body parts following anatomical examination; section 27A of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act 1965.

The application

The application is made to the cremation authority which is to carry out the cremation. The cremation authority will need to examine the form to make sure that it contains all of the necessary information. Missing information or information that is not accurate may result in the cremation being delayed or refused. If you are unsure about any of the information that is required, or are not sure what any part of the form means, you should speak to staff at the crematorium where the cremation is to take place.

The person applying for the cremation is 'the applicant' and has the legal right to apply for the cremation.

The ashes will be disposed of by the crematorium using their usual procedure unless instructed otherwise.
